Declarations

- I declare that the thesis represents my own work
- I declare that any copyright approvals for material included in the thesis have been obtained

Consents

- Except during the period of any embargo approved pursuant to a request made in the following section, I agree to this thesis being consulted for research or study purposes, provided that due acknowledgement of its use is made where appropriate
- I consent to a copy of this thesis being included in the University of Canterbury Library Repository

Request for an embargo

I request an embargo of this thesis for 24 months (to a maximum of 24) from the date of receipt of the thesis by the Library on the basis that (please tick as appropriate):

- ☐ It contains commercially sensitive material which will breach prior contractual arrangements with an outside organization
- ☒ access will endanger protection of future intellectual property rights (including opportunity to publish or make patent application)
- ☐ this is necessary to ensure compliance with the law or protection of national interests or public safety
- ☐ the research uses personal sources and/or contains sensitive cultural information which has been obtained on condition that the items be restricted

We request an embargo of 24 months to ensure that the material contained within this thesis can be published in the scientific literature. Several of the high impact environmental chemistry journals count online access to theses as pre-publication.
