Banana streak disease is caused by a variety of banana-infecting badnaviruses. A genome of the episomal form of a banana streak MY virus was recovered from an infected banana plant sampled on Vava‘u Island, Tonga, and shares >98% pairwise identity with the six other genomes available in public databases.