148. They drank the hot tea.
They cooked pikelets for tea.
The cupboard was dusty.
Her handbag was heavy.
Dogs like company.
The play was a great success.
The baby has woken up.
We brushed sand off our jeans.
They looked like sisters.
Books were piled on the shelves.
The fire warmed their hands.
They took it down the hill.
He was asked to speak.
He crawled into a corner.
They found the girl inside.
She moved on quickly.
The raft held together.
They're a close family.
The others ate the soup.
We're sorting out the dresses.
They filled three buckets.
The man saw lights on the lake.
They gathered around the fire.
She read five chapters.
The boat came close to the shore.
She was allowed into the room.
They knew the place very well.
People hurried down to the sea.
She pointed to the house.
They climbed the steep mountain.
There was no room for him.
The apples had black spots.
She has to do the milking.
The guitar is out of tune.
The old man counted his coins.
| 265 | They haven't got coats.  |
| 266 | We have to find a boat.  |
| 267 | He'll be away by lunchtime.  |
| 268 | It was a sack of mussels.  |
| 269 | They caught up with their friend.  |
| 270 | It's cold on the hills.  |
| 271 | The salad was on the table.  |
| 272 | The toy box was empty.  |
| 273 | The little boy sat quietly.  |
| 274 | They knew we were there.  |
| 275 | Mum might change her mind.  |
| 276 | You can't use this road.  |
| 277 | The woman stopped talking.  |
| 278 | She bought three coffees.  |
| 279 | We had been awake for hours.  |
| 280 | Sheets hang on the washing line.  |
| 281 | They looked down the hill.  |
| 282 | They recorded her laughter.  |
| 283 | They caught up with the bus.  |
| 284 | She hung her clothes up.  |
| 285 | Fresh paint on the overhang.  |
| 286 | They lifted the samphire.  |
| 287 | They had a good time last night.  |
| 288 | The washing dried fast in the wind.  |
| 289 | The previous tenant.  |
| 290 | We will watch the march.  |
| 291 | We played cards on the deck.  |
| 292 | She cleaned away the dishes.  |
| 293 | They could stay at the hotel.  |
| 294 | We took Mum shopping.  |
| 295 | This school's closed today.  |
| 296 | You can take this cart.  |
| 297 | We lost three bottle tops with us.  |
| 298 | We might change our minds.  |
| 299 | They looked on the silence all night.  |
| 300 | We're learning to catch.  |
| 301 | We hope we get away.  |
| 302 | She plumed her feathers.  |
| 303 | He didn't mind at all.  |
| 304 | They went out for the movie.  |
| 305 | He took the big black cat.  |
| 306 | No bad boy sat quietly.  |
| 307 | We sat on telegraph poles.  |
| 308 | The man goes to work early.  |
| 309 | We walked fast to the train.  |
| 310 | We no longer expect to be late.  |
| 311 | The train was hard to drive.  |
| 312 | The road was very quiet.  |
| 313 | He was lying on his side.  |
| 314 | She complained to the driver.  |
| 315 | They caught up with their friends.  |
| 316 | It was a lack of music.  |
| 317 | They worked out the answer.  |
| 318 | They decided the answer.  |
| 319 | The man turned off the tap.  |
| 320 | The horse was very lazy.  |
| 321 | My sister did the dishes.  |
| 322 | The ship was huge.  |
| 323 | These people are very nice.  |
| 324 | People had seen the horses.  |
| 325 | They haven't got horses.  |
| 326 | No one had come after them.  |
| 327 | They had spoken with strangers.  |
There was just one problem.

They held onto the rope.

He headed further downstream.

The dog came out of the kennel.

The seagulls flew over the waves.

She stepped onto the porch.

She put on the white socks.

We can't get the books today.

The hen sat on the eggs.

They were pleased with the catch.

He needed a holiday.

They ran through the night.

She bought a ticket.

He walked along the wharf.

The boy carried a big pack.

She jumped in the puddle.

She likes the blue pencil case.

The shop's open on Sundays.

He breathed on his cold hands.

The meal was delicious.

We'll make chocolate cake.

She knocked over the basket.

The duck stole a piece of bread.

He turned up his collar.

There's a bridge further up.

The hot concrete burned his feet.

They were pleased with the catch.
